

Course Title:

Risk Assessment Workshop: Fieldwork Activities – Level 2

Syllabus:

By the end of the course attendees will be able to:

- Develop an awareness of the University Standard and Guidance on Fieldwork
- Develop an understanding of the University's requirement for Fieldwork risk assessment
- Identify activities that require a Fieldwork risk assessment and their corresponding risk level (Low, Medium, High)
- Apply the following principles of risk assessment into fieldwork activities
 - Identify hazards
 - Identify the people who may be harmed
 - Identify how people may be harmed
 - Evaluate the risks related to a specific activity
 - Evaluate the suitability of existing control measures
 - Determine if a risk assessment requires further control measures
 - Know when to review a risk assessment by determining its relevance
 - Identify the people who need to know about the assessment
 - Understand the importance of communicating the risk assessment's findings

NOTE: THIS COURSE IS NOT ACCREDITED. ONLINE BOOKING DOES NOT GUARANTEE A PLACE – YOU WILL BE CONTACTED IF A PLACE IS AVAILABLE

Suitability:

Health and Safety Co-ordinators and equivalent roles involved in the fieldwork risk assessment process.
Members of staff and postgraduate students involved in the fieldwork risk assessment process.

Prerequisite:

People should apply for this course if they feel they have a good understanding of the objectives set for the Introduction to Risk Assessment Course.